

Instead of giving lip service to the concept of free markets, I appeal to you to 'walk the walk' and reject the NAB's petition 04-160. Let the customer decide who has the better product. Competition is good. It keeps things from rotting.